Musical, Floats Kick-Off Homecoming Festivities

'Damn Yankees' Hope For A Hit

by Judy Altman

• "YOU'VE GOT TO Have Heart! All you really need is heart! When the odds are saying you'll never win, that's when the grin should start."

This is only one of the songs which is destined to make this year's Homecoming musical "Damn Yankees" another smash hit equal to last year's performance of "Guys and Dolls." The show will have a two-night run—Thursday and Friday.

"Damn Yankees," directed by New York director and actor Julian Barry, will be led by Clayton Chadwell as the oily voiced, raspy throated, master salesman devil Applegate.

Lola

Sally Herrington, the starlet of last year's production as Adelaide, gives all indications that she can meet the task of filling the fetching role of Lola, the slinking, vamping, worldly she-devil who takes top billing in the "field of seduction." Miss Herrington's role is a far cry from the New Yorker Adelaide she played last season, but she seems to be making an admirable transition.

Joe Hardy, the ball player and the object of Applegate's tempting and Lola's desires will be played by University Player's Veteran Chuck Johnson who starred last fall as Sky Masterson.

Hopeless Season

Scenes with the Washington Senators, at the beginning of another hopeless season, will be complemented by Joe's timely appearance to add other bright spots in the show.

"You've Got To Think About The Game" sung by the players and their manager, played by Ed Rutsch, is predicted "to break up the house."

Editorial

• THE HOMECOMING COMMITTEE has done a fine job in planning this year's Homecoming, despite the handicap of an away football game. Fortunately transportation has been made available to the game at a reasonable price, and the Colonial turnout should encourage the team.

Now the committee's work is almost done. The success or failure of the 1959 Homecoming rests with the students.

The HATCHET editors certainly hope that all good Colonials will attend the Homecoming events and will have a REAL BALL.

Adams Hires Seven Buses For Navy Tilt

• ADAMS HALL PRESIDENT Don Evick announced last Friday that seven buses have been reserved under the dorm's charter service to go to the Homecoming game at Annapolis on Saturday.

Price per person for the scheduled buses will be $1.25. Buses may be chartered for 37 or 41 persons. The cost for the smaller group is $40 and for the larger, it is $40.80.

Tickets will be on sale in the Student Union lobby today from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm and from 5 to 6 pm. Buses will leave from the Student Union for the game at 12 noon Saturday.

Any organization which takes a bus will be picked up at the place of its choice or it can join the cavalcade leaving from the Student Union. Groups of 20 persons or more can rent part of a bus for a reduced rate.

Floats To Cruise Past The Union

by Mary Weddle

• HOMECOMING WEEKEND ACTIVITIES will be touched off by the float parade and judging Friday at 12:30. The parade will move from the Student Parking lot past the judging stand in front of the Union. Winners of the float competition will be announced Saturday at the Homecoming Ball.

Pep rallies will be held Thursday and Friday at 8 pm in Lisner auditorium. Thursday's pep rally will include presentation of the five Homecoming Queen finalists and cheers led by the cheerleaders and majorettes. In addition, tapping for the Order of Scarlet and the unveiling of George and Martha will take place at Friday's rally.

Two Performances

Two performances of "Damn Yankees" will be given this year, Thursday and Friday after the pep rallies. A dress rehearsal performance of the musical Thursday night is aimed at absorbing some of the overflow that has attended the Friday performance in past years. An added attraction at Friday's performance will be the attendance of members of the Washington Senator's Baseball team. Fraternity open houses will be held after each performance of "Damn Yankees."

Graduate Record

• THE GRADUATE RECORD Examination will be given on Saturday, December 12, 1959 for all seniors in the Columbian College, School of Government, School of Engineering and the College of General Studies who expect to graduate at the February, 1960 Convocation. Any senior who has not previously filed an application for this examination and who expects to graduate in February must consult his dean immediately.

day's performance will be the attendance of members of the Washington Senator's Baseball team. Fraternity open houses will be held after each performance of "Damn Yankees."

Tickets

Tickets for "Damn Yankees" are available 8 am to 8 pm through Friday, Nov. 13 in the Student Union lobby. Two tickets can be obtained with the presentation of an activity book. Admission this year will be by ticket only. Only enough tickets have been

IFC Considers Lonely Greeks

• THE IFC APPOINTED a committee to look into a "wandering Greek" organization for fraternity men whose nationals do not have a chapter on this campus, last Tuesday.

Stover Babcock, a "wandering Greek" was asked to contact other men on campus whose Greek affiliation places them in the same category. Mr. Babcock will report back to the IFC in two or three weeks on the feasibility of a "Wandering Greek" group. The organization would be similar to that already in existence for sorority girls.

In other action the IFC approved the fall 1959 and spring 1960 budgets and appointed a committee to meet with a similar committee from the Panhellenic

Mock Murder Case Selected For Trial

by Irene Cunin

• CASE IN POINT—Murder. Place—the Student Union. Municipal Court Judge Edward A. Beard will hear the case on Dec. 9. The trial will be open to the public.

Lewis B. Oberhouser, vice-president of the Student Bar Association, reported last week that planning has now reached the final stages for the Mock Trial. The students chosen to represent the defense and the prosecution are: Paul Rudman, senior counsel and Stan Lipnick, co-counsel, on one side and Alan Hutchison, who is editor-in-chief of the "Law Review," senior counsel and Victor Agmata, co-counsel, on the other side.

Decisions as to which team will handle the defense and which one will handle the prosecution has been left open until Monday night when John Kendrick, clerk of the Law School Trial Practice Court, gives the final approval on the case.

Mock Trial Rewritten

The four counsels have rewritten the Mock Trial case from Case 47 in the Trial Practice Court Manual and have rearranged the facts of the case so that the murder could have taken place in the Student Union.

Mr. Oberhouser reports that S.B.A. representatives hope to meet with the undergraduate students soon and actually restage the crime in the Student Union.

Paul Rudman will take charge of staging the crime. He has asked that undergraduates interested in serving as witnesses on the case call him at DU. 7-2547. He will then give instructions to the witnesses.

Jurors

Jurors will be chosen in the usual manner—lots will be drawn from a hat. In this case, however, the hat will contain door stubs collected the night of the trial instead of names. In this way members of the audience will be chosen to serve on the jury.

According to Browne Greene, the Student Council's Law School representative, the trial would last about two hours and four attorneys would participate.

Mr. Greene said at last week's Council meeting that everything will be as authentic as possible and the jury's decision will not be pre-determined. Bill Stuart, member-at-large, suggested that simplified briefs be mimeographed and distributed to the spectators at the trial. A meeting will be held Monday to advance plans farther, Mr. Greene announced.

University Debate Team Hosts Dartmouth In Area Exhibition

• UNIVERSITY DEBATERS, DEFENDING champions in district seven, will meet Dartmouth, the defending district eight champion, next Monday and Tuesday in a series of seven public debates in metropolitan area high schools.

The series will be topped off with an exhibition Tuesday night in Government 1 with University debaters Bill Daly and Bill Stuart, a district seven representative team to the West Point National championship tournament last spring, pitted against Wilburn Lee Sims, a member in Dartmouth's fifth ranking team last year at West Point, and Lawrence C. Wilson.

On Monday Mr. Daly and Mr. Stuart will meet the Wilson-Sims team in abbreviated cross-question style debates at Fairfax High School and at George Mason High School. Tuesday, the same two teams will meet at Oxon Hill High School and at Suitland High School.

Two other University teams will debate a second Dartmouth team composed of Marvin Stuart Freedman and Robert E. Kahn in three other school appearances.

Gail Roemheld and Carolyn Newell, novice debaters who won two and lost one debate last week at the Maryland-Washington Forensic conference tournament will meet the second Dartmouth team at Washington and Lee High School on Monday.

Al Capp and Dave Aaronson, the University's other seasoned varsity debate team will compete against Freedman and Kahn next Tuesday at Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School and at Montgomery Blair High School.

Five Alumni To Be Honored At Banquet; Precedent Set

• THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION will set a precedent when it presents five Alumni Service Awards at the Homecoming banquet Friday night.

The recipients were chosen on the basis of their service to both the Alumni association and the University, Stanley Tracy, alumni secretary, said. Although awards have been given previously, they were based on alumni achievement in various occupational fields.

The three male alumni and their services are: Otto W.

Schoenfelder, who was selected for leadership and devotion as president of the General Alumni Association and Alumni Fund chairman, and for devotion to the Alumni Association and the University; Robert E. Newby, for his long service to the General Alumni Association and the University; and Vernon L. Brown, for long service and devotion to the Alumni Association, its Alumni clubs, and the University.

Two Awards

Two women will receive awards. Miss Mary Dow will be honored for leadership in the General Alumni Association, in the Alumni office and in the University. Miss Dow operated the Alumni office alone when there was no Alumni secretary. Mrs. Marcelle LeMenger Lane will be given an award for long, devoted secretarial service to the Alumni Association.

Mrs. Lane is retired and lives in Baltimore. Mr. Schoenfelder is administrative officer of the U. S. tax court and Mr. Brown is an official of the Chase Manhattan Bank. Miss Dow is assistant to the director of development at Alexandria Hospital. Mr. Newby is assistant to the president of the Potomac Electric Power Company.

Henigan Programs Intramural Debates

• PRELIMINARY Contests for the Speech department's first annual intramural speech program will be held at 8:30 pm on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 1 and 2, in Lisner auditorium, with finals being held on Tuesday, Dec. 15, Professor George Henigan announced last Friday.

Both men's and women's divisions of each event will be held at this time. The contests will be scheduled only if there are ten contestants for each event. The deadline date for entries is Friday, Nov. 20.

The preliminary competitions will consist of four events—extemporaneous speaking, informative speaking, after-dinner speaking and prose reading. Contestants may enter the contests either as individuals or as representatives of an organization.

Extemporaneous Speakers

Entrants in the extemporaneous speaking contest will choose their subjects one-half hour before they are scheduled to speak. They will draw individually from three topics in a hat, all of which will deal with some phase of current events. Each speech is to be at least four minutes, but not exceeding five minutes, in length.

Those entering the informative speaking contest will be permitted to choose any subject. The general purpose of the speech must be "to inform." Talks will be at least six minutes long, but will not exceed eight minutes in length.

Prose Readers

Prose readers will select any prose passage which is not more than five minutes in length, including an introduction to the material. Prose may be chosen from the essay, editorial, public address or biography, but must contain "a significant idea" and have "recognized literary merit."

Contestants in the after-dinner speaking competition will have as their general purpose "to entertain." Each entrant will deliver an after-dinner speech at least four minutes in length, but not exceeding six minutes. Speeches in this category must be original.

General rules for eligibility in the contests require that entrants maintain a QPI of 3.0 as of last semester. Contestants representing organizations must be members in good standing of the organization and must be certified eligible by the organizations' Intramural Speech Manager. Each organization may enter up to three contestants and no student may compete in more than two events.

Medals will be awarded to the first place winners in both the men's and women's divisions of each event. Second, third, fourth and fifth place winners will be awarded certificates. Trophies will be given to the organization accumulating the most points in each division.

Entry forms and copies of the rules may be secured in Room 1 of Lisner auditorium.

Charles Van Doren

• THE CASE OF Charles Van Doren, a fictional Dr. Faustus made real, is a sad one indeed, and the American people's easy granting of forgiveness is a good sign. But their absolution for both his misdeeds—one moral, the other legal, is indicative of a menace which stalks our land today.

It is hard for us to judge Mr. Van Doren's reasoning for what he did, but we should be able to judge the ominous consequences of a full-scale acceptance of blatant deceit, trickery, and perjury. America is a country founded upon equal justice under law. Justice does not mean that a man should be persecuted, but it does mean that punishment should be administered with mercy to a person guilty of a crime.

Mr. Van Doren has apparently suffered sufficiently for his immorality on the quiz show "21." There is no law to form a basis upon which he can be tried for that outrage. Society as a whole will have to judge him for that. And society can many times be a stronger punishment than jail.

What is more serious than Mr. Van Doren's cheating itself is the often repeated statement these days that the American people wanted to be fooled; they just wanted to be entertained. This is not a good sign if it is true. And if it is true, the American people should stand up in judgment of their own sense of moral right and wrong. If people allow themselves to fall prey to an intellectual hypocrite who preys on their emotions, what is there to keep them from following this reasoning even further and falling victim to the pretense and trickery of a dictatorial demagogue?

The question of law in Mr. Van Doren's case is that he perjured himself before the New York State Grand Jury. This is the blatant legal crime he committed. It was not an hasty act, for Mr. Doren had a long time to think about what he did since his appearance on the show three years ago.

If he had admitted his crime before the New York authorities last month, it would be much easier for us to understand his rationalization for going on the show in the first place and he would not be judged quite so harshly. If he had admitted his misdeed, he would not have become in essence a scapegoat for the whole television quiz scandal.

We do not commend this trend toward scapegoatism now. But Mr. Van Doren, an intelligent individual, is a man who has had an education and supposedly knows what laws are for. Yet he lied to protect himself. The effect of his lying, however, served not only to cover up his own misconduct. For a time, it covered up the crime of the show producers as well.

Mr. Van Doren is an intelligent man in that he knows which way the wind is blowing. When he came to the realization that Congress was not satisfied with his testimony before the New York authorities, he had sense enough, belatedly, to tell the truth. But this does not excuse Mr. Van Doren for his actions. Rather it makes it worse, because he showed a cold calculation to try to get away with it.

The question of Mr. Van Doren's conduct reaches even further than breaking a law or serving to illustrate the lack in American's judgment. Much more is involved and it is perhaps more serious than all of the rest. That is that Mr. Van Doren endowed himself with a trust and he failed in carrying out that trust. He was a teacher. He expounded the great merits of education including the foremost quality which education tries to instill—a seeking for the truth.

This we do not feel Mr. Van Doren did, and he now admits it himself. Not only did he betray a trust to his family, he cheated. That in itself was bad enough, but not only did he cheat for money, he cheated against his profession.

Alumni Honored

• THE CLASSES OF 1909 and 1934 will be honored by the Alumni banquet for their graduation anniversaries.

The class of 1909 has 185 graduates, Stanley Tracy, Alumni secretary said. Seventy-three of these graduates are presently living in the Washington area. Of 705 1934 graduates, four hundred live in the Washington area, he said.

Invitations issued to the class of 1909, numbered sixty-six. Four hundred 1934 graduates received invitations.

Politician Clay Turns Thespian

• ONE OF THE most avid supporters of the Republican Party is Clayton Chadwell, who also holds one of the lead roles in the Homecoming musical show, "Damn Yankees."

Clayton plays the part of Applegate, the shrewd real estate agent, who convinces baseball fan Joe Hardy to sell his soul to the devil, Applegate in disguise.

Although this is his first musical comedy, Clay is a veteran of many University drama productions. In previous seasons he has appeared in "All My Sons" and "George Washington Slept Here" among others.

Just A Hobby

Acting's just a hobby, he considers politics his real vocation. He works in the Public Relations Department of the Republican Congressional Committee, "But please don't mention the party name, as there are very few of us left," he jokes.

In reference to the show he says, "It is a lot of fun being in 'Damn Yankees.' Everyone is really working very hard to make the show a success."

A political science major, he plans a future career as a "behind the scenes" man in politics.

Clayton's other activities at the University include Kappa Sigma fraternity, Gate and Key and the University Players.

Wandering Greeks

• ALL GREEKS WHO are non-affiliated at the University will meet at 1 pm today on the second floor of the Student Union annex to discuss the formation of a Wandering Greek organization for men.

Men transfer students who belong to a national fraternity which does not have a chapter at this University will discuss the organization of the fraternity-type club. The men will also consider some of the advantages open to a social affiliate at the University.

Anyone seeking information about today's meeting should contact Stover Babcock at WA. 7-2050 after 6 pm, or leave a message at the Sigma Nu fraternity house at 2038 G st.

'Yankees' Lola 'Goes To Devil'

• "WHATEVER SALLY wants, Sally gets" and this year Sally Herrington got the leading female role in this year's production of "Damn Yankees," the Homecoming musical show.

Last year's Adelaide is this year's Lola, who previously has sold her soul to the devil. Although the parts are entirely different, Sally says she "enjoys doing both of them," although Lola is a bit more difficult.

The part of Lola requires much more straight acting than that of Adelaide. However, both roles remain primarily acting and dancing.

Ironically, both parts require a strip-tease number. In the "Take Back Your Mink" number of "Guys and Dolls," Sally unloaded other articles of clothing besides the fur coat. In the number, "Whatever Lola Wants, Lola Gets," she also disrobes.

A senior psychology major, Sally considers acting a "hobby and sideline."

Her reflections on the show this far—"It's much better than last year's, but boy am I tired."

'Dr.' Reichgut Not Kicking Over Injury

by T. C. Aronoff

• ACTUALLY MARTY REICHGUT got off easy when he broke his leg. As his parents emphatically put it, "The next time you play football, we'll break your neck."

Marty broke his leg October 24 in an intramural football game, had it set in a cast and left Monday morning for New Haven, Connecticut for a medical school interview at Yale University. After Yale he had interviews with Harvard and University of Pennsylvania.

"Anytime an interviewer said something in reference to my leg, I smiled but I really didn't think it was funny."

Many Activities

In addition to his "football activities" Marty has compiled a long list of campus honoraries and activities. Among these are Omicron Delta Kappa, president; Old Men, president; Phi Beta Kappa, Student Life Committee, Campus Combo co-chairman, AEPI, pledge master; Order of Scarlet, Phi Eta Sigma, treasurer; Gate and Key, and the holder of a four-year scholarship to the University.

The incident of the broken leg, has affirmed Marty's faith in human nature. Instead of getting questions as "does your leg hurt?" or "is the cast uncomfortable?" he is constantly queried as to whether his toes are cold or does the cast itch.

It is obvious that med schools don't let broken legs stand in the way of acceptance. Two days after the Yale interview, Marty received a letter informing him of his admittance.

Marty Reichgut and Cast

But what is the nature of the biggest problem facing Marty today? Is it acceptance to medical school? Is it maintaining his 3.8 average? No—it is something of a much more serious significance. Precisely how does one dance with a cast on his leg at Homecoming?

"Having asked myself this question several times, I decided to do something about it. So far, I have mastered the cha-cha-cha, but I'm a little concerned about doing the spin step of the jitterbug!"

Inquiring Reporter Finds Sympathy For Charles Van Doren

by Hal Bergem

• CHARLES VAN DOREN has been the most frequently mentioned person in student conversations around George Washington during the past week, or anywhere for that matter.

His "pathetic" confession and testimony before the U. S. House Committee on Legislative Oversight damaged greatly the reputation of the intellectual in the United States.

In spite of this, however, he has not deserved the complete rejection of the American people as some would have it.

Wiser Now

"I have learned a lot about people, about nature, and about man's responsibilities," said Van Doren during his testimony. One wonders why a man in his position did not learn those things earlier. He is a man of knowledge, but his knowledge has been slow in ripening into wisdom. He is wiser now.

A canvassing of University students shows their sympathies lying with Van Doren. The moral wrong seems to rest with the quiz show producers. Most felt that he should be reinstated as a professor of English at Columbia University.

Many scoffed his "boyish" behavior before the House Committee. Some even doubted his reputation as an intellectual.

Phyllis Hurwitz

"His winning raised the country's opinion of intellectualism," states Phyllis Hurwitz, GW coed, "and now the idea of intellectualism," has plunged downward again—this time, to a new low. That's where the tragedy lies. I feel somewhat sorry for Van Doren, but I feel more sorry for his family and its reputation."

"He is smart," continues Miss Hurwitz, "and he's worthy of being a teacher. I believe he should be reinstated if the students wish it. The fault lies with the producer of the program Twenty-one. If Van Doren had refused to appear on the fixed program, someone else would have and would have gotten the money. One person's refusal would not have changed the standards of the program."

Bill Daly, university champion debater, describes Van Doren as

"a normal human being who had a difficult time refusing a generous offer."

"The public was happy with knowing the program was fixed," states Daly. "It was a mistake to stir the whole thing up. The only thing illegal was perjury."

"I fail to understand why the public is so irate because he was not authentic," continued Daly. "I am no more annoyed at discovering that Van Doren was not completely legitimate than I was in discovering that the Lone Ranger was not a completely legitimate historical figure. If the students want him back at Columbia, he should be allowed to go back."

Joan Talbert

Joan Talbert, star of many university dance productions, paraphrased the whole situation as "an opening of 'Van Dora's' box."

"In his testimony I would rather have heard him say that he did it for money," exclaimed Miss Talbert, "rather than to further the ideals of American education. He was not actually furthering those ideals, he was betraying them. His story is an indication that people are making decisions without really thinking about them."

"People shouldn't cast him down so," Miss Talbert cautioned, "no man can stand up and say 'I have led a completely honest life.' We are often given people as ideals because of their accomplishments and family backgrounds—such as Van Doren because of his family's great literary reputation. This is a fallacy. Even family characteristics are variable."

Miss Talbert was one of those queried who did not feel Van Doren should be reinstated. "He couldn't require the honesty of his students without being hypocritical," but she added, "A man in such a position as Charles Van Doren had made a great, great ALPHA DELTA PI honored their fifteen lovely pledges at its pledge formal held at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, Saturday. A highlight of the pre-dance party at the home of Joyce Crow was the crowning of David Brown as ADPI's King of Diamonds.

Later at the dance, King Dave presented the 1959 pledge class and their dates who were: Barbara Baker and SN Jim Sharratt, Liz Chapman and Dick Bouberger, Cynthia Coe with Phil Sig Tom Gray, Suzanne Cook and Bill Giotzsch, Janice Crevelt and Phil Sig

Fred Hink, Carolyn Denaro and Phil Sig Richard Nichols, Barbara Fallon and KA Bill Watkins, Kit Farley and Steve Erikson, Micha Iszkowski and Vito Tanzi, Karen Kesner and Phil Sig Milton Dartouzos, Claire Leavitt and Don Rouse, Patricia Fritchard and KA Ben Walker, Carole Scruggs and John Ossott, Glenda Sweeney and Delt Bill Warden and Trudy Wendel and Phil Sig Alan May.

Among the proud actives who looked on with their dates were Lynn Baumann, prexy and KA Paul Arrington, Ann Haug and fiance Phil Sig Charlie Mays (past King of Diamonds), Mary Alice Coates and TKE pinnate Paul Chasey, Joyce Crow and King David Brown, and Jane Kesten and Delt Tommy Talantino. An unexpected and pleasant surprise of the evening was the announcement of Mary Cauffman's engagement to Dave Dadds.

One devil of a "good time" was had by all last Friday night when the Phi Sigs entertained the Kappas at a "Go to H— Party." "Hot Ziggity zing," swore "Evil-Eye" Warfield as her sisters in sin reveled with the devils from Dupont Circle. The unquenchable thirst of the tormented was tormented further by a concoction mixed by devil Bart Crivella. It was called "Potomac River Water." Didn't know what it was, did you girls? Anyway, Nancy Haines, Ellie Ahr, Gail Goodwin, and Kay Calouette knocked off three vats full.

Suzy Kinneman and Gail Itschner chased men all over "Hades" while Janice Platt, Connie Smith and Lynda D'Andrea were satisfied with the ones they caught. To top it off, Sorcerer Don Pa-fony pulled the best disappearing act of the evening and ended up in a straight jacket on the roadside in Annendale.

Friday night the SAE House was the scene of another Bar Corps Party with the commander of the Corps, Carl Scribblers, in attendance. The feature attraction of the evening was a wild game of Indian Signs led by those three famous chiefs of the SAE Clan, "White Clown" Fox, "Running Wolf" Miller and "Sifting Bull" Sluger aided by his Chi O daughter "Squatting Helper" Transtrum.

Others who arrived late at Minerva's palace on Dupont Circle were Neal Berryman and Chi O Kathy Maier, Hank Frain and DG Betty "thumbs up" Robinson, John Hall and Chi O Sandy Smith, Max Farrington and Pi Phi Mary Boyd, and the inevitable Mike Hartwell and Chi O Lea Obeare.

The Deltas started off with a big weekend by hosting an exchange with Chi Omega on Friday night. The Delt pledges entertained with a TV show (fixed) entitled "This Is Your Leaf, Adam and Eve—er, Ham and Carolyn." Seen in the audience were Bob "Dave Beck" Lineberry, Mike "Four Days" Adams and many more attractive celebrities, Alina Richardson, Marty Hurd, Sandy Smith and Marlene "Lonesome" Sesso.

On Saturday night the Deltas were guests at Bobbi Lohnes' speakeasy for a fabulous Roaring

DIARY OF A COED

MONDAY: Prof. Pomfritt sprang quiz in English lit this morning. If Shakespeare didn't write Canterbury Tales I'm a dead duck . . . Lunch at the house—turkey hash. Question: how can we have turkey hash when we never had turkey? . . . Smoked a Marlboro after lunch. I dig those better makin's the most! . . . Played bridge with sorors in afternoon. When game was over, my partner stabbed me several times with hatpin. Must learn weak club bid . . . Dinner at house—lamb hash. Question: how can we have lamb hash when we never had lamb? . . . Smoked a Marlboro after dinner. What filter! What flavor! What pack or box! . . . Chapter meeting at night. Motion made to abolish capital punishment for pledges. Motion defeated . . . Smoked more Marlboros. Quelle joie! . . . And so to bed.

TUESDAY: Faculty tea at the house. Spilled pot of oolong on Dean of Women. She very surly. Offered her a Marlboro. Still surly. Offered skin graft. No help . . . Dinner at Kozy Kampus Kafe—24 hamburgers. But no dessert. Have to watch waistline . . . And so to bed.

WEDNESDAY: Got our marks in English lit quiz. Lucky for me Shakespeare wrote Canterbury Tales! . . . Afternoon date with Ralph Feldspar. Purely platonic. Ralph wanted to consult me about love trouble he's having with his girl Nymphet Calloway. I assured him things would get better. Ralph said he certainly hopes so because last four times he called on Nymphet, she dumped vacuum cleaner bag on him . . . Smoked several Marlboros. Wonderful cigarette. No confusion about which end to light. Saves loads of time . . . Dinner at house—bread. That's all; just bread . . . And so to bed.

THURSDAY: Three packages from home—laundry, cookies, records. So hungry I ate all three . . . Quiz in American history. If Millard Fillmore didn't invent cotton gin, I'm in big trouble . . . Dinner at house. Big excitement—Nymphet Calloway announced her engagement to Ralph Feldspar. While sorors flocked around to congratulate Nymphet, I ate everybody's side meat . . . Then smoked Marlboro. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! . . . And so to bed.

FRIDAY: Got our marks in American history quiz. Was shattered to learn that Millard Fillmore did not invent cotton gin. He wrote Canterbury Tales . . . How very odd! . . . Lunch at the house—bread hash . . . Marlboro after lunch. Great smoke. Must send valentine to manufacturers . . . Spent entire afternoon getting dressed for date tonight with Norman Twonkey. Norman is tall, dark, loaded—a perfect doll! Only thing wrong is he never tells a girl where he's going to take her. So I put on a bathing suit, on top of that an evening gown, and on top of that a snowsuit. Thus I was ready for a splash party, a dance, or a toboggan slide . . . So what do you think happened? He entered me in a steeplechase, that's what! . . . Would have taken first prize easily if I hadn't pulled up lame in the last furlong . . . And so to bed.

Yes, the college life is a busy one and you may be having trouble choosing the cigarette that's right for you. Here's a handy guide: For filter plus flavor—Marlboro. For flavor without filter—Philip Morris. For filter plus flavor plus coolness—Alpine . . . All made by the sponsors of this column.

Notables To Select

BETTY MADIGAN, Washington's Hit Parade singing star, will head a list of four judges who will select this year's Homecoming queen finalists.

Miss Madigan's record "Joey" made the Hit Parade several years ago. A current record, "Just As I Am," has been released under the Coral Record Co. label. She is scheduled to appear on Arthur Murray's T.V. show soon.

Jeannette Clift, leading lady in Bernard Shaw's play, "Major Barbara," which is currently running at the Arena Stage through Nov. 22, will aid Miss Madigan.

Other Judges

Other judges are: Scott Kirkpatrick, manager of the National Theatre and Sue Roteier, fashion co-ordinator for Jelleff's Women's store.

The judges will meet and talk to the 37 Homecoming queen candidates at a Judges' Tea from 2 to 5 pm today at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house.

Five Queen Finalists

The judges will select five girls to be finalists. Each girl will be judged on the basis of beauty of face and figure, charm and personality, and school activities.

Students To Vote

Students will vote for one of the five finalists for the Queen Friday. Students must present their activities book in order to vote. Booths for voting will be located in the Student Union, Law School, Medical School and Engineering School between 8:30 and 9:30 am, noon and 1:30 pm and 5 and 7:15 pm.

All the candidates will be presented at the pep rallies in Lisner auditorium at 8 pm Thursday and Friday before the presentation of "Dama Yankees." The five finalists will be announced at the pep rallies.

The queen will be crowned at the Homecoming Ball by Student Council President Tim Mead. Mr. Mead will be aided by Becky Hanzl, last year's Homecoming queen.

SC Revamping Group To Study Compromise

• STUDENT COUNCIL Reorganization committee is scheduled to meet today to consider a compromise for representation changes. Main features of the plan include equalizing of representation on the Council and more definite distinctions between its judicial, legislative and executive duties. Speaking for the check-cashing committee, Council Vice-President John Prokop told the HATCHET Saturday that the big remaining problem is to get enough money to support the system. He also said that downtown banks were interviewed Wednesday but none were interested in running the system unless a profit could be realized. A tentative plan indicated the service would be open until 5 pm on weekdays and from 10 am to 12 pm on Saturdays. It is estimated that four thousand dollars would be needed to get the system started. A method has been devised which would provide for a service charge to defray the costs of operating the service. In light of all this, if it is shown that the idea is too much for the Council to undertake right now, the committee plans to send letters to parents of incoming students advising that they start bank accounts in local banks by bank draft rather than check. The reason is that the students will then be able to draw from their accounts immediately without having to wait for checks to clear first.

Ideal Big Sis

• LITTLE SISTERS HAVE been asked to submit an original paragraph of approximately 100 words on "Why My Big Sis Should Be the Ideal Big Sis" to decide the outstanding Big Sis of the year.

Paragraphs are to be turned in to Dottie Lund, second vice-president of the Big Sis Board, in the office of women's activities before noon next Monday.

"It is the opinion of the Big Sis Board that the Little Sisters would be better judges of who was the 'Ideal Big Sis,'" Miss Lund said, "instead of the Board, which has made the selection in the past." The winning article will be published in the HATCHET, and the Big Sis' name will be engraved on a plaque hanging in the Big Sis Lounge.

Six Alumni Initiated Into 'Hall Of Fame'

• SIX FORMER UNIVERSITY athletes will be honored as the first members of the "Hall of Fame" at the Alumni Lettermen's Hall of Fame dinner at 7:30 pm, Thursday at Columbia Country Club.

To be eligible for membership in the Hall of Fame, which was begun this year by the Alumni Lettermen's Club, the person being honored must have earned at least one letter at the University in any intercollegiate sport. The honor itself isn't based on the quality of performance as an undergraduate athlete, but on achievement in his chosen field after leaving school.

The six being honored this year are Arnold "Red" Auerbach, who lettered in basketball, for achievement in the field of professional basketball; Robert "Bob" Considine, who lettered in tennis, for "achievement in the field of journalism;" Calvin Griffith, who lettered in baseball, for "achievement in the field of professional baseball;" Alphonse "Tuffy" Leemans, who lettered in football, for "achievement in the field of professional football;" Vice Admiral Alfred C. Richmond,

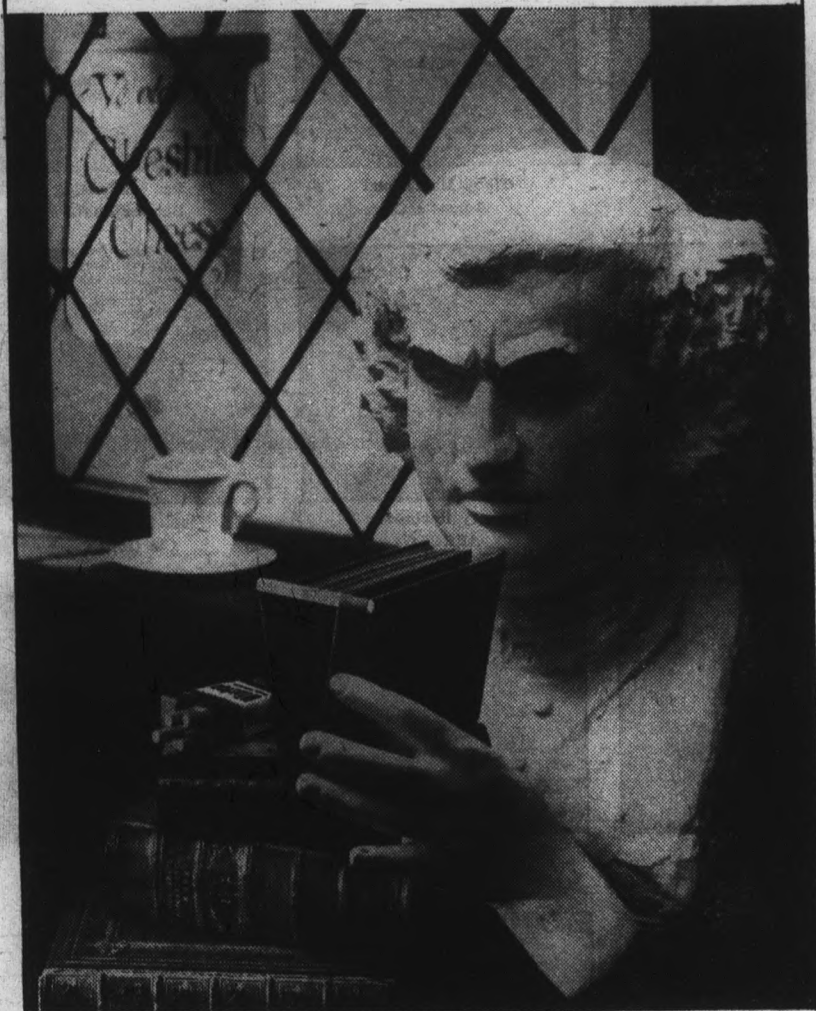

United States Coast Guard, who lettered in football, for "achievement in the field of military service;" and Hillory A. Tolson, who lettered in track, for "achievement in the field of government administration."

Although six men were chosen for the Hall of Fame this year, choices will be limited to three per year in following years. Each Hall of Fame member will receive an individual plaque, and will also have his name engraved on a large plaque at the University.

The awards will be presented by outstanding civic and professional leaders who have been long acquainted with the recipients.

O. S. Colclough, Acting President of the University, will speak at the dinner. A reception will precede the dinner at 6:30 pm.

Dr. Johnson turns another elegant phrase:

Sir, if it hasn't got it there, it hasn't got it!

Old Dr. Sam has done it again—brought his dictionary up to date in terms of modern Winston usage.

Winston (win'ston), n. A cigarette with Filter-Blend on one end and a wise man on the other.

Taste (tast), n. What decorators argue about and Winston smokers enjoy.

Filter-Blend (fil'ter-blend), n. A happy marriage of art and science. Light, mild, flavorful tobaccos are artfully selected, then scientifically processed for filter smoking.

Slogan (slō'gān), n. (e.g., Winston tastes good like a cigarette should). A statement of disputed grammar but unquestioned fact.

Front (frūnt), n. (used in conjunction with the preposition "up"). The section of a filter cigarette where if it hasn't got it, it hasn't got it. Also, the section that counts, the section where exclusive Filter-Blend is to be found.

Boswell (bōz'wēl). Nickname for a guy who is always hanging around to cage Winstons from you.

"There is nothing which has yet been contrived by man by which so much happiness is produced . . ."

printed to fill Lisner auditorium each night. Tickets are going fast, says Billy Frank, Homecoming co-chairman.

Saturday's activities include the football game, against Navy, at Annapolis at 2 pm. Student admission to the game will be $1 and an activities book coupon. Alumni price will be $3. Transportation will be provided by Adams Hall.

Our part in the half-time activities at the game will be put on by our cheerleaders and majorettes supported by the pep band. The Navy Cadet Corps and marching band will provide the major half-time entertainment. After the game fraternities will hold open houses.

Dance

The Homecoming Ball, featuring the music of Johnny Long's band, will be held from 9 pm to 1 am Saturday at the National Guard Armory, 2001 East Capital st.

During intermission at the ball, tapping for Omicron-Delta Kappa, men's scholastic and leadership honorary, will be presided over by Martin Reichgut. Gate and Key tapping will be announced by president Tom Varley. Mr. Varley will also announce the Order of the Lacy Garter which goes to the Sweetheart of Gate and Key. Winners of the Friday float competition will be announced.

Highlight of the Homecoming Ball intermission activities will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen of 1959 by Student Council President Tim Mead, assisted by last year's queen, Becky Hanzl. The Queen is chosen by student vote from the five finalists selected from the original 37 candidates at the Queen's Tea.

Decorations

Decorations for the Homecoming Ball will include balloons tied to the tables. Ice and glasses will be provided and soft drinks will be available for purchasing. Students can "BYOL."

Tickets for the Homecoming Ball may be obtained in the Student Union lobby from 8 am to 8 pm through Nov. 13. Admission for one couple is free with 2 Campus Combos, $2.50 with one Combo, or $6.00 without a Combo. Alumni may purchase their tickets at the Alumni Office. Members of the faculty and administration may obtain tickets at the faculty club or in the Student Union. Table reservations can be made in the Student Activities Office for a 25-cent fee.

Homecoming co-chairman Billy Frank stated that Campus Combos have accounted for a good bulk of the ticket sales.

Gate And Key

• THE GATE AND KEY Society initiated seventeen men at ceremonies conducted at the Sigma Chi house last Saturday.

Those initiated and their fraternities were: Acacia, Christian Lietwiler; Alpha Epsilon Pi, Stanley Heckman, Burt Kaplan and Martin Reichgut; Delta Tau Delta, Sandy Morrison and William Talantino; Kappa Sigma, Clayton Chadwell and Phi Sigma Delta, Peter Ennis and Eddie Opach.

Others include: Phi Sigma Kappa, Bart Cravella and Lou Van Blois; Sigma Chi, David Bernheisel; Sigma Phi Epsilon, George Lady; Tau Epsilon Phi, Marty Kass and Charles Salzberg and Tau Kappa Epsilon, Henry Englebrecht.

Three others to be initiated at a later date are Craig Fox and Jerry Powers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Charles Sterling of Sigma Nu.

Sorority Goats Vie In Poster Contest

• PROFESSOR RICHARD W. Stephens of the Sociology department will be Master of Ceremonies for the annual Goat Show December 4.

Goat Show and poster contest judges are in the process of confirmation, Dottie Williams, president of Junior Panhel said last week.

Contest Rules

Poster contest rules were explained at the Junior Panhel meeting last Tuesday by Publicity Chairman Trudy Wendell. Posters are to be 11 inches by 14 inches, and must include the Goat Show theme, "IF," plus date, place, time and price of admission. The winning sorority will receive an award and the poster will be reproduced to fit in the Student Union marquis. The contest deadline is November 20.

This year as in the past, a can of food as the admission price, will be donated to the United Federation of Churches. They in turn, will send the food to needy families in the area. Girls are reminded that there is no sorority competition for the biggest collection of food, Miss Williams said. Sandra Servator, Junior Panhel vice-president, has volunteered her father's truck to deliver the food to the United Federation of Churches.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH

When the world seems dark . . . when the sun refuses to shine, do not fret. It happens every night.

Dear Dr. Frood: A professor here says I'm so dumb I can't spell my own name. What should I do?
Willyum

Dear William: He's just teasing.

Dear Dr. Frood: Several girls' colleges nearby depend on our college for dates. Some girl is always calling and asking me to go out. How can I politely refuse?
Bothered

Dear Bothered: Say you have a headache. Better still, admit you have no head.

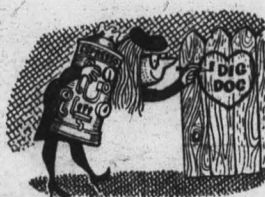

Dr. Frood, Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Frood: I have gone steady with four different boys in the last three weeks. Would you call me fickle?
L.N.

Dear L.N.: I would call you seldom.

Dear Dr. Frood: I hear that at some schools they let you smoke in class. How can I convince our administration to do the same?
Hopeful

Dear Hopeful: Wherever you smoke Luckies, you're smoking in class.

Dear Dr. Frood: Like you're the most. I mean like you're out there . . . so cool you're Iceville. Like you're the ginchiest.
Chick

Dear Chick: Like you're sick, Chick.

DR. FROOD ON A CURIOUS DECISION

There is considerable talk in tobacco circles about the introduction of new cigarette flavors. It is expected that you will soon be able to buy cottage-cheese cigarettes, sarsaparilla cigarettes and fresh-garden-vegetable cigarettes. You will be happy to know that Lucky Strike has decided to stick with its own remarkable taste—that of fine tobacco only. A pleasant decision, I'd say.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

mistake. The cause has been provided for the American people to show forgiveness."

Richard Brown

Richard Brown, holder of the Emma K. Carr scholarship at the university, stated, "He has betrayed the trust placed in him by the public. It's unfortunate, but not tragic. Many people did get enjoyment from him, however. Some even learned something. The fact that 'Twenty-one' was fixed probably helped make the show better."

"He certainly hasn't committed any capital crime," continues Mr. Brown, "neither he nor his intellect has been degraded. He still represents a very intelligent family, and is, no doubt, very intelligent, himself. I think Columbia should reinstate him."

Gail Rogers

Gail Rogers, vice-president of the Strong Hall dormitory council, described Van Doren's testimony to the Committee on Legislative Oversight as "straight out of high school—a simple, almost foolish speech."

"If he had been a man of principle," said Miss Rogers, "he wouldn't have gone on the show and taken the money. The fact that he has confessed because he had to does not make him any more of a man of principle. He was forced to confess a lie."

"I think most people would have taken the money and not felt so dishonest. I don't think Van Doren's really repentant. The only dishonest thing, however, was that he represented himself as a man of intellect."

Sandy Plevin

Sandy Plevin, former president of the Adams Hall dormitory council, is not one of those who condemned Van Doren. "If all the people who are condemning him would have been offered the same chance as he was," claims Mr. Plevin, "they would have done likewise. Van Doren was merely a victim or circumstances."

"I think he's brilliant in spite of being fed answers. His ability as a teacher hasn't been affected. I wouldn't feel any resentment at all if he had been a professor of mine," Mr. Plevin also said.

Bobbi Johnson

Bobbi Johnson, secretary of the Strong Hall dormitory council was more concerned with the detrimental effects to America from abroad. "It will unfortunately provide good propaganda for Russia," exclaimed Miss Johnson, "a U. S. intellect has sold that intellect for material gain; the Russians have been charging us with this for years, anyway. The U. S. population was deceived—making us seem quite gullible."

"Nothing he's done has anything to do with his capacity as an instructor," continues Miss Johnson. "I think he should be reinstated if the students want him."

Vito Tanzi

Vito Tanzi, president of the International Students Society, shares only part of Miss Johnson's opinion. "I don't feel adverse opinions towards American intellectualism will result," stated Mr. Tanzi, "except in Russia."

"At first," said Mr. Tanzi, "he didn't do anything wrong in accepting his prize money. I regard him as an actor on the stage; he was paid for his performance. He did wrongly by saying later to the American people, however, that he did not accept answers. It was a case of pure perjury before the Grand Jury."

Dr. Wood Gray

The faculty point of view concerning Charles Van Doren was not as conciliatory as that of the students. It was not hostile, but it was resentful. Dr. Wood Gray, professor of American history, seemed to represent the faculty opinion when he very colorfully compared Van Doren to "the son of a famous military general who has been caught selling secrets to the enemy."

Evans Writes Biography Of Ben West

• PROFESSOR GROSE EVANS, part-time lecturer at the University and director of educational work at the National Gallery, recently completed a biography of the painter Benjamin West.

Professor Evans is an active scholar in the field of art history and has taught in many other universities on this subject. In preparation for this study he visited libraries and galleries throughout this country and Europe.

"The reason I chose Ben West for my subject," Professor Evans explained, "is that I had written the life of Sir Joshua Reynolds, the first president of the Royal Academy of Art, for my master's degree, and as the thesis of this book is for my doctor's work, I chose the second president, Ben West."

He said that West was the first painter to emerge from the New World and "it was very strange that as the son of a very humble innkeeper, he rose to such heights in society that he became the bosom buddy of George III." Not only that, Mr. Evans said, he was not encouraged to develop his talents at all because his family was Quaker.

"Although West's life is extremely interesting and varied, the book deals no less with the general painting of the era than with West's achievements," Professor Evans explained.

ALD Initiates Five Women

• ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA freshman women's honorary held its fall initiation last Saturday.

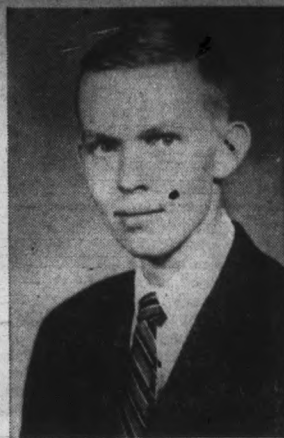

Five girls were initiated into ALD, an honorary for women who have attained a 3.5 average or better in either semester of their freshman year.

Those girls who were initiated were: Mary Cauffman, Dorothy Jeanne Carlson, Arlene Kevorkian, Hazel Moore and Carol Schleicher.

After the ceremony, the first business meeting was held. Suggestions for future meetings were discussed and plans for Mrs. Yakobson's annual tea were made. This year the tea will be held at Yakobson's home on Sunday, December 13 from 3 to 5 pm. A guest speaker will be present to entertain the girls provide a topic for discussion.

Delts, Kappas Lead Booster Competition

• DELTA TAU DELTA still held a lead in the fraternity division and Kappa Kappa Gamma had taken over first place in the sorority division in the Booster Cup competition last week.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon still keeps a 15-point lead for the second place among fraternities and Delta Gamma has moved into second among sororities.

Booster points are awarded to each fraternity or sorority in relation to their participation in the pep rallies and caravals, which precede each home football or basketball game.

Bonus Points

Fifteen points are awarded each group which sends a delegation of five or more members to a pep rally to display a distinctive flag or banner, and a large placard or poster appropriate to the theme. At the end of the Booster season, 50 bonus points will be added to the scores of those sororities and fraternities which participated in all of the 12 pep rallies.

Fifteen points are awarded each group that enters an automobile in the carvalcade decorated within the theme of the motorcade. Entries are judged on originality, craftsmanship and appropriateness to the theme. Sororities and fraternities are judged separately. First place winners will receive 30 additional points; second place, 25 additional points; and third, 15 additional points.

Points are accumulated through out the football and basketball seasons. The Booster Cup is presented to the sorority and fraternity each having the most Booster points at the annual May Day celebration. The total possible points is 755.

Points are added to the total of each group as a computation of the percentage of the group's membership that bought either a Campus Combo or a Booster card.

The breakdown of points accumulated up to Friday Oct. 30 are as follows:

Teen-age Marriages
Where are they sleeping tonight?

They just got married this morning. Where will they sleep tonight? It hadn't crossed their minds. What will they do for money? They hadn't thought of it. Are they in love? Oh yes. Violently. Passionately. What's in their future? Loneliness and tragedy. Who is to blame? YOU! No social problem in America today is more frightening than the rapid rise in teen marriages. No family is exempt from the bitter consequences. The current issue of McCall's tells why teen-agers marry, why their marriages fail, how to avoid premature marriages or save them when they become a reality. Now, today, read the incredible, documented facts in November McCall's. On sale at all newsstands.

Two Forfeits

Unfortunately two teams forfeited games last Sunday. Delta Theta Phi forfeited to Phi Sigma Kappa and Phi Sigma Delta forfeited to Pi Kappa Alpha. Med (Jr. & Srs.) had a bye.

In B league action, Med School (Fresh & Soph.) eliminated TEP from contention by edging the TEP-men 15-12. TEP scored first when Stu Dickman scampered 35 yards early in the game. The Doctors reached the scoreboard in the first period when they tagged a TEP back in his own end zone. Dickman again tallied for the TEP-men when he intercepted a Med pass on the Med 45-yard stripe and scooted down the sidelines for the T.D. TEP was unable to get the extra point and the score at halftime stood at 12-2.

As the second half got underway the Doctors started rolling. Mel Coolitch passed to Pete Greenberg for a 25-yard scoring play and again for the conversion to make the score 12-9. Coolitch to Greenberg clicked again late in the game for the go-ahead score and the "Little Doctors" had their third victory.

Delts Romp

Delta Tau Delta B team trounced SPE 27-0 to move into a first place tie with the Med School. Barry Hughes led the way, scoring on runs of 2 and 21 yards. Julius Pope stopped the only SPE threat in the fourth quarter, by intercepting a pass and returning it 42 yards for a touchdown. The stage is now set for the title game between the Delts and the Med School, since both teams have 3-1 records in league play.

PAD clinched a tie for the league B-2 crown with a smashing victory over TKE. Mel Sharp passed for four touchdowns to bring his season's total to ten. Once again Sharp played no favorites as he hit Gordon Quist twice, Par Porter and Bill Watkinson once each, with passes for T.D.s. Sharp called his plays nicely, running consistently up the middle when the drives started stalling. PAD's defensive unit once again kept the score board clear—keeping intact its perfect record.

Homecoming Tilt

iron, ran rampant over the Sailors.

It looked as if the Midshipmen were falling apart when they let Penn score a last second desperation touchdown to tie the score at 22 all. But when it took a last second goal by Monty Stickles to give Notre Dame a squeaker of a 25-22 victory, it seemed as if Navy was back on the right track. Second-string quarterback Jim Maxwell really moved the team in the air, picking up 209 yards via aeriels in the first half alone.

Third Straight 22

For the third straight week, Navy posted a 22 under their name on the scoreboard but this time they made it stand up, as they downed the Maryland Terps 22-14, but not without some trouble. The Terps jumped to an early 14-0 lead which they carried through halftime. Joe Tranchini, Navy quarterback, accounted for two Middle touchdowns, sneaking over from the two, and later, carrying four yards off tackle into paydirt. A diving catch by Jim Tenbrook notched the two extra points which knotted the score at 14 all. Joe Bellino, who had been running wild all afternoon, picked up a Terp punt and powered 59 yards for the deciding touchdown. A last minute sustained drive by the Terps was stopped, as time ran out, with Maryland on the Navy one-yard line.

With the Middle first-string backfield now intact, they may approach their early season form. Joe Bellino, hobbled by a bad knee since the third game, is back in full working order, as the Terps will be glad to testify. Joe Tranchini is once again at the helm, recovered from a hand injury which kept him completely inactive in the game against the Irish. With Maxwell's stellar performance indicating added depth, and Montalavage at top form in the fullback slot, the Middies once again have a threatening offensive punch.

Army Tuneup

The game with the Colonials will be the Midshipmen's tuneup for their traditional clash with Army, Thanksgiving weekend. With the weak Colonial line buckling against Richmond, one can't help but wonder what will happen against the onrushing Navy linemen. If that fabled spirit comes through, and Hino has a chance to aim his aeriels, the Colonials might make some noise, but the Navy strength and depth will probably be too overpowering.

Spiders' Web Catches Buff

by Steve Newman

• HALFBACK BOB DUNNINGTON scored three touchdowns as the University of Richmond dealt GW a muddy-26-0 defeat before 1000 hearty fans Saturday at Richmond. The loss was the sixth in seven games for the Colonials and marks the third time this season that the Buff has been shut out.

Dunnington, 185-pound senior, scored on a 75-yard kickoff return, a 3-yard plunge, and a 4-yard pass from quarterback Frank Gagliano. David Ames, the Spiders' other halfback, scored their other TD on a 15-yard run in the third quarter.

Offense Stalled

The GW offense, on the other hand, was bogged down by the mud, and the Colonials were able to make only one serious scoring threat. The Buff, trailing 26-0, drove from their own 33 to the Spiders' 13 in the third quarter, but the 60-yard drive ran out of gas. The Colonials also got as far as the Richmond 44 in the first half, and penetrated down to the 25 in the fourth quarter, but the a 32-yard drive by the Spiders. The four-yard pass from Gagliano to Dunnington was the eighth play in a drive that started after Bill Smythe got away a short soggy punt from the Buff end zone. Chuck Boone added the first of his two conversions to give Richmond a 7-0 lead.

Spiders Halted

An attempted 25-yard field goal by the Spiders later in the same period was wide, and another Richmond threat was halted when Hino intercepted a Gagliano pass in the GW end zone.

With less than a minute left in the half Dunnington cracked over from the three for his second six-pointer, ending a 56-yard march. Bob Barbieri kicked off to start the second half and Dunnington, after bobbling the ball, galloped 75 yards for his last TD and Richmond's 20th point. A few minutes later, second-string quarterback Joe Rossetti of Richmond intercepted a GW pass and returned the pigskin to the GW 15. On the next play halfback Ames slid across the goal line to end the scoring.

Action in the first half saw yards of paydirt in the closing 5 minutes of play. A 35-yard pass from Goldman to Leo Brightman put the TEPs on the 12-yard line. On fourth down Goldman ran the ball to the 2 and a first down. On the second play, Goldman faded back to pass. Al Snider of Med intercepted Goldman's pass and ran it out to the 39-yard line as the half ended.

In the second half, Goldman electrified the spectators with his stop and go 23-yard T.D. run. It was then that Med came to life. Joe Svaboda completed a 34-yard pass to Al Snider, putting the ball on the TEP 20-yard line. Svaboda tried 2 passes and they fell incomplete. Marty Kass of TEP intercepted Svaboda's next pass on the TEP 7-yard line and brought TEP their third and best victory of the year.

Moonlighters and SAE will play it a later date. Sigma Nu had a ye.

Strpak Halted

Delta Tau Delta's unbeaten string was halted at four victories as Sigma Chi beat the battling Deltas 7-6 in a bruising encounter. Sigma Chi, led by Quarterback John Jackson, scored in the first period on a 41-yard pass to Bill Codd. The same combination was good for the extra point. Sigma Chi led 7-0 and held that lead at halftime.

In the third period, Quarterback Dick Brown raced 35 yards for a T.D. On the all important extra point Brown was tagged about 6 inches from the goal. With the exception of a final Delt rally both teams seemed to be able to hold each other. Brown led his team down to the 20-yard line. The strong Sigma Chi team

Power-packed Navy Poses Stiffest Threat

by Dave Segal

• ALL THE PAGENTRY and festiveness of Homecoming will be highlighted by the trip to Annapolis, where the Colonials take on the Midshipmen of Navy.

The Middies, always a highly regarded football power, carry with them the excitement and appeal of college football. Everything, from the pomp and majesty of their new stadium, to the impressive dignity of the Corps as they march in, promises all the color and gaiety associated with traditional college gridiron rivalries.

The Colonials have been pointing for this game all season long. This is the last encounter on the 1959 grid schedule and the seniors on the squad will surely be trying to make their last game in a Buff uniform a memorable one.

An indication of the spirit that runs through the Colonial squad for the Navy game is last season's clash. In relative strength, the Colonials were clearly overpowered. Navy did not have one of its best teams, but an Eddie Erdelatz squad is never anything but good. The Buff surprised everyone by jumping off to a one-touchdown lead in the pouring rain. Navy countered with a TD of their own, but at the half the score was still knotted. True, the Middies finally did take over and score three rapid touchdowns, but the first-half score is a testimonial to the Colonial spirit.

Poor Record

This season the Middies have compiled one of the worst records in their victory studded career. Last week's win over Maryland brought their season slate to three wins, four losses, and one tie. Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Miami, and Notre Dame have all come out on top of the Middies this season. A tie with Penn, and victories over Boston College, North Carolina, and Maryland, brings the Navy slate up to date.

It seems as if the Midshipmen don't possess some of the typical strength that is a Navy tradition, but the Middies play one of the hardest schedules in the country and their three victories prove that their weakness is purely relative. SMU's Don Meredith, probably the best passer in college football, led the Mustangs to victory. Miami's powerful ground attack also rolled up too big a margin for the Middies to overcome. Syracuse's offensive might, the strongest on the college grid-

Terps Defeat Jr. Colonials

by Mike Grossman

• THE BABY BUFF gave up two first-half TD's to go down in defeat at the hands of the "Tiny" Terps of Maryland, 14-0.

The Terps drew first blood in the initial period on a 35-yard aerial via quarterback Don White to John Boinis. In the second quarter, Rex Collins, the other Terp quarterback, displayed his wares with a nine-yard touchdown toss to halfback Andy Telefay, to make the tally 14-0 and end all the scoring for the afternoon.

Terps Hold

The Maryland defense halted Buff marches on the seven- and twelve-yard lines in the second half to keep their shutout intact. The Buff defensemen played second fiddle to none after half-time, as they jarred loose fumbles and virtually held the vaunted Maryland offense at a standstill.

The game was hard played and the Colonials sustained many costly injuries to their already undermanned squad. Halfback Buddy Pollock hurt his ankle, fullback Chic DePalma had three front teeth jarred loose, and Tom Morosky, who made numerous fine catches, had to be carried from the field after sustaining injuries to both his knees.

Can't Cash In

Fred Palton played an outstanding game, recovering two Terp fumbles, one on the Maryland ten-yard line, but the Baby Buff couldn't cash in on these breaks. This defeat brings the Junior Colonials' record to one win and three losses, but it does not tell the true story of this tough, talented, but undermanned ball-club, which has the potential to develop into a very fine gridiron squad and might very well become the nucleus of a powerful Colonial team.

AEPi Swamps Adams, 29-0; TEP And SX Fashion Upsets

By Dan Solt and John Harrison

• THE ALPHA EPSILON PI machine, spearheaded by Rick Silas, rolled over an undermanned Adams Hall team 29-0. Silas ran two yards and five yards for touchdowns in the first half to give the AEPi-men a 14-0 half-time lead.

Early in the third quarter, Silas intercepted a pass on the Adams Hall 12-yard line and went untouched into the end zone. AEPi's defensive unit scored their third safety of the season when Goldman bring his club within 2 Jeff Young broke through to tag Tom Gregg in the end zone. The final AEPi tally came via an aerial from Silas to Jeff Young. Silas hit Steve Sandler with a strike for the extra point to bring the scoring to a close.

Med School Upset

Tau Epsilon Phi upset highly favored Med (Fr. & Soph.) 6-0 on a fourth-period 23-yard run by quarterback Fred Goldman. TEP also took the edge in first downs 5-2.

... THROWN FOR A LOSS—Aaron Knott evades the block of the Adams Hall center (shown crouching behind him) and crashes in to nail the Adams ball-carrier for a three-yard loss back to the Adams one-yard line. On the next play Jeff Young nailed an Adams man in the end zone for a safety.
